Vienna, Jan. 13.

THE Sum demanded of the States of the Lower Auſtria, by the Emperor, is 800000 Florins, as a Free Gift, beſides their ordinary Taxes. The Hereditary Countries, beſides the 15000 Recruits which they have rais'd already, have reſolv'd to aſſiſt the Emperor with 6000 more; accordingly Circular Letters are iſſued out to have them ready by the end of March. An Edict was lately publiſh'd here, demanding throughout the Hereditary Countries a certain Tax on all real and perſonal Eſtates; the States offer to compound, and in lieu of it would give the Emperor a large Sum; they endeavour likewiſe to prevent the Collectors from taking an Eſtimate of every Man's Poſſeſſions; but the Emperor inclines rather to inſiſt on the Method preſcrib'd by the Edict, that he may know the true Strength and Riches of his Countries. On the 11th the Marqueſs Rinuccini ſet out from hence forPrague in his way to England; whither he is ſent by the Grand Duke to Compliment the Queen on her Acceſſion to the Throne. The King of Poland not having room enough in Pruſſia for his Saxon Troops, has been oblig'd to ſend 4 Regiments to Lithuania, and 2 to Saxony, which laſt being Defects there, Count Caunitz has propos'd they may be ſent to joyn the other Saxon Auxiliaries, who are to be employ'd againſt Bavaria; The Poliſh Envoy here has undertaken to tranſmit this Propoſal to the King his Maſter. The Emperor has diſpos'd of 3 Regiments, That which Baron Gehlen bought about 6 Months ago of Count Mansfeldt for 50000 Florins, is, upon his Death, diſpos'd of in favour of Count Maximilian of Staremberg, Brother to Guido. That of Furſtemburg is given to the Prince of Longueval, Son in Law to Count Harrach. And Count Konigſeck, who was Lieutenant-Collonel to Count Furſtemburg, has got a Regiment which the Prince of Longueval left in Italy.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Jan. 25.

Schafhuyſen, Jan. 14. The Popiſh Cantons, who were till now with-held by the Remonſtrances of the Proteſtant Cantons from furniſhing the King of Spain with Men, have at length determin'd to make good theCapitulation with the Dutchy of Milan,and to ſend 4000 Men into the Milaneze. Mr. Aglionby, the Queen of England's Envoy, has taken up his Reſidence at Zurich.

Warſaw, Jan. 6. By the laſt Letters from Ruſs-Lemburg we are told that all the Burghers being met together in the Town-Houſe, bound themſelves by a New Oath to be faithful to the King and the Republick; this, and the Preparations they make for their Defence, is not very agreeable to the Swedes: However, 10 Swediſh Officers have been in that City, and have demanded of the Upper Crown Marſhal, and all the Weywodſhips of Ruſſia, a poſitive Declaration whether they will act againſt the King of Sweden, or for him; The Upper Crown Marſhal treated thoſe Officers very civilly, but deferr'd giving them his final Anſwer: Mean time a Party of the Swedes advancing near the Crown Army, a Troop of Horſe went over to them. Letters from Lublin adviſe that the King of Sweden kept his Chriſtmas at Sierkarzowice with the Count of Denhoff, and paſs'd the New-Years Day with the Heer Gniewoſz, Caſtellan of Zawichorot, which Place is 12 Miles from hence; we expect him here very ſhortly. Some Letters from Thorn, tell us, that the King of Poland, inſtead of going to Marienburg, will go into Lithuania to joyn the Muſcovites. The Pope's Nuncio who is commiſſion'd by the King to accommodate Matters between him and the Cardinal Primate, has not yet executed that Commiſſion, the Cardinal pretending to have ſo much Buſineſs upon his hands at preſent, that he cannot ſpare time to hear him. The Staroſt Nakilsky, who kill'd the Saxon Collonel Ægidi, fearing the King's reſentment, came lately hither and deſir'd the Cardinal's Protection, but his Eminency declining to meddle with that Affair, the Staroſt is gone to the King of Sweden.

Stockholm, Dec. 31. The Engliſh Reſident Mr. Robinſon, is going from hence to Poland, to aſſiſt in bringing about a Peace between the Kings of Poland and Sweden.

Dreſden, Jan. 31. The 8000 Saxons that are put into the Emperor's Service by the King of Poland, are now in Bohemia. According to the Advices from Warſaw, the Deputies that were ſent to the King of Sweden, and had Audience of him at Lublin, are return'd to Warſaw. 'Tis ſaid 36 Companies of the Crown Army are gone over to the King of Sweden.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Jan. 25.

Berlin, Jan. 16. Great Preparations are making for Solemnizing the King's Coronation Day, which is on the 18th. The ſame Day his Majeſty will inſtitute a New Order of Knighthood, which 'tis ſaid will be call'd, The Order of Orange. There will be fine Fireworks, Illuminations, and other Expreſſions of Rejoycing, both at Court and in the City; On Monday next the King will give Publick Audience to the Heer Alefeld, Envoy from the King of Denmark; when his Majeſty will receive him ſitting and cover'd, according to the New Ceremonial.

Amſterdam, Jan. 24. They write from Liſle of the 20th, That Order was come that day from the Court of France, abſolutely forbidding all Commerce with Holland; ſo that for the future no Dutch nor Engliſh Commodities will be ſuffer'd to paſs through Flanders or Brabant to France; and this Prohibition has already been put in execution, for a certain Quantity of Merchandize that was carrying from Ghent to Liſle, was ſtopp'd on the Way at a French Toll-houſe, and turn'd back agen to Ghent.

Hague, Jan. 23. The Prince of Baden Dourlach is come hither from Germany. 4 Deputies are arriv'd here from the Chapter and City of Liege. All the Officers in the States Troops are order'd to repair immediately to their Garriſons.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated Jan. 22.

Paris, Jan. 22. The laſt Advices from the Army in Italy, tell us, that the Duke of Vendome is gone to.

to visit the Posts between the Oglio and the Lake de la Garda; They had Advice that the Enemy is drawing together 3 or 4000 Men on the other side of the Secchia, between Concordia and Quitello, who, 'tis said, are to attempt to Succour Bersello, the Garrison of which Place suffers great Hardships, being in want of Salt and other Necessaries; but 'tis believ'd they will not succeed in the Enterprize, because they must be oblig'd to pass the Crostolo in sight of our Army, and must force their way thro' several Posts, where our Troops, that block up that Place, are strongly retrench'd. The Battery that was first rais'd against Bersello, being at too great a distance from it, the Bombs did little Execution; but 'tis said they have begun to bombard it from an Island in the Po that is nearer the Town.
